

In 1977, the Master of Business Administration program became the first graduate program in the College of Business to be offered at St. Ambrose University. In 1984, the program was officially named the H.L. McLaughlin MBA program after a prominent area businessman. Over 41 years later, the program continues to evolve to meet the needs of business professionals and the organizations they serve.

THE ST. AMBROSE DIFFERENCE

- Flexible and individualized. The H.L. McLaughlin MBA program provides an ideal educational opportunity for busy professionals. St. Ambrose MBA students are able to earn a nationally accredited master of business administration degree entirely online.
- An integrative curriculum. In today's business world, more corporations are solving complex problems by bringing together departmental representatives to tackle projects as teams, where members must understand each other's function and role in the process to be successful. The St. Ambrose MBA curriculum is designed with these particular business needs in mind. The St. Ambrose approach is totally integrated: integration of business disciplines, integration of people in teams, plus integration of values and practice. The result—St. Ambrose MBA graduates are able to design solutions for today's complex organizational environments.
- Experienced and engaged faculty. One of the program's greatest strengths is faculty who bring to the classroom a mixture of academic training and experience-based perspective, a teaching commitment focused on student learning, and an emphasis on ethics, social responsibility and leadership.

MISSION

The mission of the H.L. McLaughlin MBA program is to provide broad theoretical and practical graduate level business education and skills, with an emphasis on social responsibility. Faculty focus is on student learning, preparing graduates to understand the complexities of business and solve diverse business problems.

ACCREDITATION

The St. Ambrose H.L. McLaughlin MBA program is nationally accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP). St. Ambrose University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC).

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

If students enter the program in Fall 1 or Spring 1, they can complete the MBA program in a little over 14 months by going full-time (taking two courses per session). There are two eight week sessions in the fall, two eight week sessions in the spring, and one summer session. This program is completed entirely online.

CURRICULUM

The MBA degree requires successful completion of 36 credit hours. MBA candidates must complete eight core courses and four concentration courses. All courses are 3 credit hours.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students with a bachelor's degree in any field may apply for admission to St. Ambrose University H.L. McLaughlin MBA Program. Students may be admitted any session. However, we can only guarantee the 6 session completion schedule to students entering Fall 1 or Spring 1. The Admissions Committee evaluates each candidate as an individual. The admission decision is based on: work experience, undergraduate coursework, academic achievement, life experiences, and professional achievements.

Each candidate must complete and submit a professional portfolio, which includes the following:

1. Official transcripts from each undergraduate and graduate school attended must be sent to the program coordinator
2. Professional resumé
3. Writing sample

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The St. Ambrose University Office for Financial Aid provides information on loans for graduate studies. In addition, the College of Business has a limited number of research assistantships available.
