

INNOVATION SUMMIT

LEARNING TO WORK | WORKING TO LEARN:
REIMAGINING THE LEARNING ECOSYSTEM

WELCOME

We're ready to engage in conversations about how you build a resilient, curious, and adaptive workforce. This is a conversation about how learning becomes a strategic investment that builds your organization's capacity to grow and adapt in a rapidly changing and complex world. We're excited to listen as you work with peers to construct the workplace of the future. Business leaders, student panels, and industry experts will share insights that will inform your leadership and strengthen your talent retention strategies.
