Results of Readership Survey
Last month more than 120 people completed our AmbroseZine survey. Most of the respondents were alumni and lived in the Midwest. Readers wrote that they love the 'Zine's nostalgia, as well as the opportunity to feel connected to their alma mater. It was extremely entertaining and educational to read all the responses, so my heartfelt thanks go out to those who completed the survey. Even though the survey is closed, I always welcome suggestions and comments!
