Welcome to the AmbroseZine, SAU’s complimentary monthly e-newsletter, providing a convenient way to stay connected to St. Ambrose—and with other Ambrosians. You may manage your preferences for future issues of the AmbroseZine at the end of this email.

Here's the January edition of the AmbroseZine. Read and enjoy.

-- Survey for AmbroseZine Readers
-- SAU Partners with Putnam on Civil Rights Exhibit
-- Learn Calligraphy the Catich Way
-- Alumni News
-- Sports Scoop
-- What's Going on at Galvin
-- Migration Project
-- Bee Happy Hour is Back!
-- Siblings Weekend
-- This Month's SAU IQ and Last Month's Results

Survey for AmbroseZine Readers
Help deliver a better newsletter! Complete this 3-minute survey and you'll be entered into a drawing for an SAU logo T-shirt. It's really that simple. [Read More >]

SAU Partners with Putnam on Civil Rights Exhibit
Over the past three years, and with the help of St. Ambrose University students, the Davenport Civil Rights Committee conducted interviews and gathered archival materials and historic artifacts for an exhibit at the Putnam Museum. [Read More >]

Related: View TV-11 video from the Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration on campus

Learn Calligraphy the Catich Way
Former students of the late Father Edward Catich, a world renowned calligrapher, will lead a two-day calligraphy seminar beginning Feb. 6. Sign up by Jan. 29. All skill levels are welcome! [Read More >]
Alumni News
This weekend sit in the stands when Lisa Bluder and the University of Iowa women's team take on Purdue Jan. 31 in Iowa City. Prior to the game, Bluder will speak at a reception. Read More >>

A Week of Caring sponsored by the Student Alumni Association is Feb. 8-12. This student-led group raises money to provide short-term funding for emergency situations. How to Give >>

Sports Scoop
Coach Ray Shovlain earned his 500th win Jan. 2, and senior forward Alex Burkle scored his 1,000 career point as a Fighting Bee! Read More >>

Men's head golf coach Jeff Griebel and golf standout Dusty Drenth are headed to Spain in June for the World University Golf Championships. Read More >>

What's Going on at Galvin
Tennessee Williams’ "The Glass Menagerie" will be on stage from Feb. 19-21. The St. Ambrose Theatre Department's production of this compelling story portrays an overbearing mother trying desperately to control her adult children's lives. Read More >>

Read Wikipedia's entry on the play, considered Williams' first successful production.

Thodos Dance Chicago, one of the Midwest's top dance companies, comes to Galvin Jan. 30 in cooperation with Quad City Arts. Buy Tickets >>

Migration Project
"The Migration of African American Catholics" will be the Catholic Studies lecture Feb. 24, delivered by the Rev. Cyprian Davis, OSB, a leading authority and scholar on the subject. Read More >>

Article on Rev. Davis from the Catholic Diocese of Biloxi (pdf)

Bee Happy Hour is Back!
Break up the winter doldrums with happy hour! Join alums Feb. 25 in a city near you to simultaneously toast St. Ambrose, and get in on the free appetizers and door prizes! More Details >>

siblings Weekend
siblings come together for a fun-filled weekend on campus, Feb. 19-21! Sponsored by the Campus Activities Board and Student Activities Office, you can plan on making new memories together. Read More >>

This Month's SAU IQ
Who is the chairperson of the Civil Rights History Committee?

Think you know the answer? Send it in to the AmbroseZine.