Welcome to the AmbroseZine, SAU's complimentary monthly e-newsletter, providing a great way to stay connected to St. Ambrose—and with other Ambrosians. You may manage your preferences for future issues of the AmbroseZine at the end of this email.

We value your feedback, so please email us your suggestions.

Here's the June edition of the AmbroseZine. Read and enjoy.

Click on a title to jump to its story.

-- Stingers Above the Rest
-- From the Fryer To the Mower
-- Your Favorite Faculty and Staff Members
-- Alumni Event: RAGBRAI
-- Sports Scoop
-- What's Going on at Galvin
-- Digger Celebrates 55 Years
-- Working Every Day For Seven Years
-- Student Broadcasters Win Top Awards
-- This Month's SAU IQ and Last Month's Results

Stingers Above the Rest
For the second consecutive year, St. Ambrose earned the 2008-09 Midwest Collegiate Conference Commissioner's Cup! The prestigious trophy honors all-around athletic excellence among its member schools, and the Fighting Bees and Queen Bees were "stingers" above the rest with 80 points separating them from second place. Read More >>

From the Fryer To the Mower
At St. Ambrose, the Physical Plant Department is a good steward of the earth, and the Scott County Regional Authority recently rewarded its efforts! This spring the SCRA gave one of its grants to the department's biodiesel project: turning cooking oil into fuel. View at WQAD story and news clip >>

Your Favorite Faculty and Staff Members
Two faculty members and one staff member received recognition as the 2009 Faculty and Staff Members of the Year for their dedication and ability to inspire students. Read More >>
Alumni Event: RAGBRAI
Will our RAGBRAI riders be buzzing through your town? The 37th Register's Annual Great Bicycle Ride Across Iowa is July 19-25, and the Alumni Office has assembled a team to ride. See which town they're riding through, and cheer them on!
Get More Details on the Team >>

It's not too late to get your St. Ambrose Bix7 running t-shirt! More Info >>

Sports Scoop
NAIA Recap: Accomplished Ambrose golfer Dusty Drenth finished 10th in the national tourney and was named PING All-American. Read More >>

Recruiting News: We're getting three bowlers from Minooka and a golfer from Monmouth.

What's Going on at Galvin
The 2009-10 Performing Arts Series has been announced. Musicals, dancing, Frog and Toad, and "mystical arts" are just a few performances in another outstanding season! Check out all the shows and order your tickets! Read More >>

Digger Celebrates 55 Years
Earlier this month Rev. William "Digger" Dawson celebrated the 55th anniversary of his ordination. A Dispatch/Argus story features Father Dawson as a priest who "channeled peace" and also explains his informal moniker. Read More >>

Working Every Day For Seven Years
Over the past academic year, Ambrose students clocked more than 14,000 service hours. That's the equivalent of one person working 40 hours, five days a week for seven years! Read More >>

Student Broadcasters Win Top Awards
Student-run KALA-FM radio and TV-11 were once again given top awards by the Iowa Broadcast News Association for broadcasts during the 2008-09 year. Read More >>

This Month's SAU IQ
Ambrosians volunteered how many hours for Big Brothers/Big Sisters?

Think you know the answer? Send it in to the AmbroseZine to win a cool SAU logo prize.

Last Month's SAU IQ
Question: From what local high school did theatre professor Mike Kennedy graduate?

Answer: Alleman High School