Welcome to the AmbroseZine, SAU's complimentary monthly e-newsletter, providing a convenient way to stay connected to St. Ambroseâ€”and with other Ambrosians. You may manage your preferences for future issues of the AmbroseZine at the end of this email.

New Look Update: Many of you emailed about problems viewing the links due to a blue background. The color was unintentional, but now it's fixed! Keep the feedback coming; it helps deliver a better newsletter! Please email us your suggestions.

Here's the September edition of the AmbroseZine. Read and enjoy.

---

Homecoming 2009

One of the Best in the Midwest

Update: Health Sciences Education Center on the Rise

Alumni Event: Tailgating

Sports Scoop

Migration Project

What's Going on at Galvin

He's Got the Look

From Bombs to Books

This Month's SAU IQ and Last Month's Results

---

Homecoming 2009

It's less than one month away so start making plans for Oct. 9-11, and don't be a stranger! Bring your family, celebrate with friends, cheer on the Bees at the game, and Much, Much More >>

And don't forget to tell everyone you're coming!

---

One of the Best in the Midwest

St. Ambrose is rated one of the top universities in the region by two national ranking publications.

Read the Catholic Messenger article >>

---

Update: Health Sciences Education Center on the Rise

The health sciences education center is taking shape since its groundbreaking in May. See what it looks like today and check back periodically to the Center's web page for progress updates! Read More >>

---

Alumni Event: Tailgating

This is a tradition you can't pass up! When the weather turns colder and weekends involve the latest football game rivalry, you know it's time to come tailgate with fellow Ambrosians! Bring your Fighting Bee spirit to the Sept. 26 game vs. McKendree, Oct. 3 vs. St. Francis, or Nov. 7 vs. Grandview. Read More >>

Sports Scoop
Learn about new varsity bowling coach Donna Slane, the growing popularity of the sport, and Slane's prediction on the 2009-10 inaugural season. Read More >>

Men's golf coach Jeff Griebel was named to the NAIA Hall of Fame, and head volleyball coach Bruce Billingsly won his 500th match.

As the Quad-City Times reports, the Cross Country teams are starting out young but strong. Read More >>

Migration Project
Considering how migration shapes our world is the subject of the second University "project" series. This year-long, multifaceted look at a world on the move kicks off the major lectures Sept. 30 with the Folwell lecture on "Forced Migration." Read More >>

What's Going on at Galvin
The popular and boisterous musical, "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," will be performed by the award-winning SAU Theatre Department Oct 9-11. Read More >>

"Migration Interpretation" will feature the artwork of alumni artists in the Morrissey Gallery during Homecoming weekend and also as part of the Migration Project. Read More >>

He's Got the Look
Former St. Ambrose student Ra'Mon-Lawrence Coleman is a contestant on Season 6 of the fashion reality show, "Project Runway" on Lifetime. View Episode Clips >>

From Bombs to Books
First year student Adam Costas served 10 months in the Army as an explosive ordnance disposal specialist. Now, having traveled the world, he's ready to begin his college career at St. Ambrose. Read More >>

---

This Month's SAU IQ
Who is this year's Folwell Lecture speaker during the Migration Project?

Think you know the answer? Send it in to the AmbroseZine.