

Student Learning Outcomes*

Through a 4-year educational experience, participation in student services programs and supported programs will further students' abilities as follows:

Student Outcome Domain	Dimensions of Outcome Domains
Knowledge acquisition, construction, integration and application	Understanding knowledge from a range of disciplines Connecting knowledge to other knowledge, ideas, and experiences Constructing knowledge Relating knowledge to daily life
Cognitive complexity	Critical thinking Reflective thinking Effective reasoning Creativity
Intrapersonal development	Realistic self-appraisal, self-understanding, and self-respect Identity development Commitment to ethics and integrity Spiritual awareness
Interpersonal development	Meaningful relationships Interdependence Collaboration Effective leadership
Humanitarianism and Civic Engagement	Understanding and appreciation of cultural and human differences Global perspective Social responsibility Sense of civic responsibility
Practical competence	Pursuing goals Communicating effectively Technological competence Managing personal affairs Managing career development Demonstrating professionalism Maintaining health and wellness Living a purposeful life

*For a full explanation of outcome domains and dimensions see the Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (CAS) @ <https://www.cas.edu/index.html> click on "CAS Statements"

 We recognize that not all students will spend 4 years at St. Ambrose University. Generally speaking, the typical student will complete a 4-year degree. Learning outcomes for all students will vary based on the degree and length of involvement in programs.